(Comment: For information on Soviet control and use of the Berlin Police Department, see [redacted]. As previously indicated, the 25X1A2g Administrative Police, located in the Russian Sector, may be considered the Central Headquarters of the Police. The Criminal Police is the central agency which investigates all major cases of crime in Berlin. It is still permitted to operate in all four sectors of the city (although with certain restrictions at present). The Criminal Police was a favorite vehicle for MVD operations in the western sectors of Berlin.)
